

In Other Words ...

SAFARI sə -'fa-rē (Noun) Plural: SAFARIS

1. An overland expedition especially one for hunting or exploring in eastern Africa.
2. A journey undertaken with a specific objective.

SAFARI SYNONYMS

A SYNONYM is a word that has a similar meaning to another word and can be used instead of it in some circumstances. There are many synonyms for the word safari eg:

Expedition	Trip
Search	Journey
Voyage	Outing
Mission	Tour
Visit	Excursion
Jaunt	Spree
Hunt	Pilgrimage
Trek	Investigation
Adventure

however some of these words are most often used in one particular circumstance.

Imagine you are going on a safari in 1890 ... make a list to cover each of the following:

1. Pack a personal bag – what things you would take?
2. Think about your fellow travellers. Who might you want to go with you?
3. Plan your itinerary. What sort of activities would you expect to do?
4. What other equipment would you need?

Now plan for a safari in 2009. How and why would your lists be different?

(Think about changes in technology, social attitudes, environmental issues etc.)

From the list above, choose the word you think MOST suitable to match up with the following people:

- Holiday maker
- Explorer
- Seafarer
- Friend
- Astronaut
- Religious convert
- School student
- CID Member
- Mountain Climber
- Rescue Team Member
- Sightseer
- Shopaholic
- Retirement home resident

Write a sentence containing each pair of words you have selected.

