

COMMBOX BRINGS YOU THE...

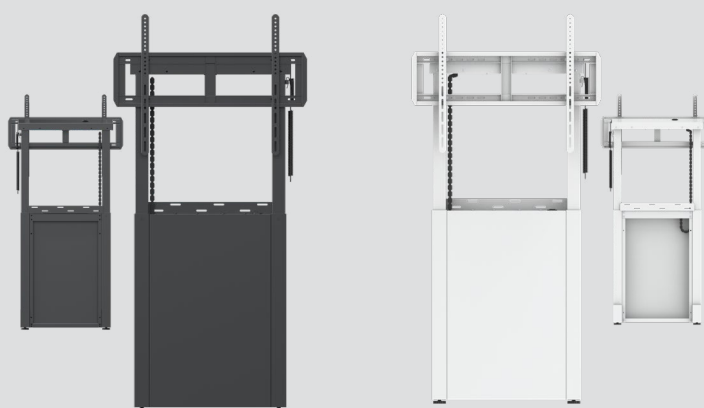

commBOX Urban

The CommBox Urban has arrived. Just like its namesake, the Urban wall mount is about building community and connections, supporting interactive and display screens of up to 86".

With motorised height adjustment, the Urban is your partner in fulfilling demands for flexibility and aesthetics in any productive workspace. Position your screen to your preferred height to work standing or seated. With internal cable management and thoughtful, low profile design for accessibility as well as the option of black or white finishes, the Urban brings a modern, clean look to any environment it is installed in.
